to meet candidates for Virginia State Senate 31st District and Arlington County Commonwealth's Attorney

Barbara Favola

Nicole Merlene

Theo Stamos

Parisa Dehghani-Tafti

Please join us as we meet with candidates for the 31st Senate District of Virginia and for the Commonwealth Attorney of Arlington County. The 31st Senate district comprises large parts of Arlington, Loudoun, and a small portion of Loudoun County. The seat is currently held by Senator Barbara Favola and her primary challenger is Nicole Merlene. The Arlington Commonwealth Attorney is the lead prosecutor for criminal cases in Arlington County and leads the team of public prosecutors in the County. The seat is currently held by Theo Stamos and her primary challenger is Parisa Dehghani-Tafti. All four candidates will attend to answer your questions about their stance on disability issues. This will include and plans to support people with disabilities and their families as well as the intersection between people with disabilities and the criminal justice system, as victims and perpetrators.
