Join us for this special meeting with the candidates vying to represent the 33rd Senate District, 42nd House District, and 40th House District. These seats encompass parts of Fairfax, Clifton, Springfield, Centreville, and Chantilly. This is a special opportunity to hear the candidates speak and ask them all your questions about the future of disability services and supports in Virginia. They will speak in detail about their policies, past work, and plan for the future to help individuals with disabilities.
